FLY-KILLING ADVICE

Disease During Summer Can be Prevented by Destroying Pests Now, Says Health Department; Danger to Babies Great.

Kill the flies early, before they go to housekeeping for the summer and begin to rear the several billion offspring which they each will produce if unmolested.

This is the advice of the State Department of Health. One swat now is worth millions later on, according to the department.

"Extermination of flies will mean fewer deaths from typhoid fever and fewer deaths of babies this summer," declared the health department in its anti-fly statement. "Typhoid fever is spread by flies which deposit in food the germ-laden filth which they have picked up in their travels. Intestinal disorders which are the greatest single cause of baby deaths in summer are spread in the same manner."

The department advised careful screening of houses, destruction of manure piles and other favorite breeding places for flies and protection of all toilets by screening or other means of preventing flies from coming into contact with the contents.

SCHOOL NOTES

High School

The members of the High School are busy at work for they are on the home stretch and hope soon to finish.

Sixth Grade

Last week Side No. 1 chose pink and green for their class colors and Side No. 2 chose blue and gold. Interest and enthusiasm are not lacking. Side No. 2 won a month ago by having the greater number of 100's in arithmetic and spelling, but it now looks as if Side No. 1 were going to be the winners this time.

Fifth and Sixth Grades.

The pupils of these grades gave a surprise party last Monday afternoon, which was enjoyed by all.

Fourth Grade.

Last Wednesday afternoon, the children of the Fourth Grade surprised their teacher with a fruit and flower shower. The afternoon was spent playing games and having a good time.

On Friday our grade and the Fifth Grade had a spell down, in which we were the victors. The ones who remained standing were Bertillis Anderson, Elizabeth Lucas, Phyllis Rosengarten, Dorothy Mandell, Pauline Wiser, Vivian Fox, Norman Pringle and Clifford Ridgway.

We purchased six books with the money earned from selling mottos.

Third Grade.

In the weekly spelling contest, the boys were the winners. The children are very enthusiastic over geography contest we are having. The ones getting a grade of "A" in arithmetic are making a taxi poster.

THE OLD BURG

And What This Bunkie Thinks About Re-enlisting.

April 8, 1919.

Dear Buddy:—How's every little thing in the old A. E. F.?

Things over here look a whole lot different than when you're home-sick for a piece of homemade apple pie in the rain and everything over in Brest, and nothing but rumors of you're going to sail next week or a year from next 4th of July.

They gotta song here, "How are you going to keep 'em down on the farm after they've seen Paree," and take it from me the old home town don't look the same after you've been away as long as we have.

I could have got my old job back at the planing mill, but when I saw what cits clothes sell for, and how food and room rent have jumped I couldn't see where I got off.

Believe me, you'll know we were in a world war when you get home.

You'll no doubt be surprised and think I'm crazy when I tell you I re-enlisted up for a three-year hitch, but believe me I'm wise. And say, old Pal, I talked it over with Mabel and she says, "Now between us we can save enough in three years for that little chicken farm in the country." Clever kid, ain't she?

They give you a month's furlough to see your folks, five cents a mile to the old town and back (it only costs you one cent a mile each way because you get a furlough fare certificate) and your sixty bucks bonus. You've got thirty seeds coming to you when you report and no worry about a job. You can pick your own branch of the service and keep your grade and pay.

I could have put in for a one-year hitch being in the service and signing up again on discharge, but there ain't going to be any vin rouge here after the thirsty first of July and now I've seen France and Germany, I wouldn't mind taking a chance on the Philippines, Canal Zone or something like that.

You know how it is with a guy that don't know anything special, he's worse outta luck as a civilian than in the army. He can't hold down a good job unless he works up to it. I always wanted to take an automobile course but never had the fifty bucks, so I'm going to put in for service where they'll teach me auto repairing—haven't decided just yet whether it will be motor-transport, air service, or the tanks.

The army gives you a chance to earn while you learn. You don't have to worry about chow, clothes or a good bed in peace times. And a sensible soldier never has to be in debt and can always have his own money in his pocket.

When you figure it out, the army in peace times is a job, a good job; even if you don't study anything special.

"Bull" hasn't gone up enough to eat up the difference between "thirty a month and fifteen"—which was army pay before the war.

Now—a guy that just sticks as a soldier is better off in the prime of life than lots of civilians.

When he's old enough to retire Uncle Sam gives him three-quarters of his pay for the rest of his life and $15.75 a month extra for quarters, heat, light, clothing and rations. And the Q. M. sells him food at cost, too.

He'll sure be a sergeant by that time with a hundred or more a month base pay. That nets him ninety a month retired pay. It's the life of Reilly for those boys.

Figure that out, buddy, it's better than 4 per cent on $20,000 in the savings bank. And you don't know many guys that save $20,000 working either.

Is the army a good job?

I'll say it is!

The army puts you in good shape and keeps you well and don't charge you for doctors.

Remember—I've been home and can see the thing right.

Take my tip and talk to the old man about it.

Always your old bunkie.

BILL.

AT THE CHURCHES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

W. H. Spybey, Pastor. The fine subscriptions last Sunday makes evident that we are loyally going "over the top" in the Centenary appeal along with other Methodist churches in this area. Let your cards be signed and turned in at once that we may complete our quota by May 25th and make it a victory Sunday. Sermon subject next Sunday morning, "Always Something Sings," a sermon you will not believe unless—well, unless you are different from most folks.

At night a series of beautiful slides on North Africa, and a reel of moving picture film. No charge and open to the enjoyment of all our friends and neighbors.

Sunday School keeps adding new members and teachers are doing solid work.

The solos last Sunday by Mrs. Neitz and Mrs. Leu were beautifully appropriate and delightfully rendered numbers, appreciated by all at the morning service. Come and enjoy the fine spirit of worship you will find.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Rev. C. W. Weltmer, Pastor. Services for Sunday, May 18th. Subject, "The Grace of God." Golden Text: Through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved. Acts 15:11.

The riches of grace. The North American Indian estimated his wealth by his strings of wampum. The native African estimated his by the number of cattle, sheep and goats he has with which to buy wives.

The farmer in the rural district estimates his by the title to a hundred and sixty acres of land. The banker in the county-seat estimates his by one or two hundred thousand dollars. The capitalist in the great city measures his by the million, and the head of the great merger or corporation measures his by the billion. If there is this advance in passing from the savage to the plutocrat what must the standard of riches be when we rise above men and angels to the infinite God?

Men's League Tuesday evening. You men are always welcome.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening. This is one of the great supply stations where we receive strength for our every day labor. Y. P. A. at 6:30. Preaching at 7:30.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. W. H. Pholey, Minister. Mothers' Day was a happy event with us, as we are sure, it was in all other churches. Our congregations were large, both morning and evening, regardless of weather. The spirit of the day was observed in the happiest of ways. Easter hopes and Mothers' Day honors leads naturally to Children's Day joys, which are now before us. Come next Sunday for practice.

Sunday School at 9:30. The service for Children's Day, "The King's Service," will be practiced. Every member should be present. The lesson study is, "The Grace of God." Gen. 6:8; Ex. 34:6, 7; 2 Cor. 12:9. A great lesson for all.

Morning worship and sermon at 10:30. Dr. Pholey will preach on the subject of the "Great Destroyer—How to Overcome." In the evening at 7:30 there will be a union service under the direction of the "National Reform Association." The Rev. James S. McGaus, D. D., will speak on the subject, "America and the New Era." He has a great message and an unusual power of delivery. See elsewhere in this paper for full announcement.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30. Topic, "Life, the School of God, and Its Lessons." Ps. 119:1-8. Leader, Miss Esther Broka. Everybody come. We have a great subject and a splendid leader. The results should be most happy.

Prayer and praise service Thursday evening at 7:30. The subject for consideration is "The Man of Jerusalem." John 3:1-16. This is a very vital subject for today. You will find it so. Come and see.

The Choral Union meets for practice Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Lackins will be present to lead. This is of great importance to the service of your church.

OUR STUDENT NURSE

Letter From Miss Amon Telling of Her Experience in Training School.

Columbus, O., May 11, 1919.

Mrs. C. P. Champney.

My Dear Mrs. Champney:—I wish to tell you how well satisfied I am with my work and surroundings.

I was accepted and received my cap and bib on Easter Sunday. My theoretical work is very stiff as we have the standard of the university. My last examination for this year comes next week and so far I have come out very well. All studies are ended the last of May.

We have every advantage of the university student and I can't tell you how beautiful and wonderful a place I think it is. Our home is located directly on the campus and about a block and a half from the hospital.

The nursing is very wonderful to me and as a favor to me I would like to have you thank all the ladies of the National Council of Defense for what they have done for me and that I will do my very best to be a credit to Perrysburg.

My health is excellent and I am very contented and looking forward to a month's vacation in August.

Trusting you are enjoying the best of health, I am, sincerely,

HELEN M. AMON,
190 W. 11th Ave.

A THRILLING PICTURE

The story of how mother-love sent a girl across the sea to care for the orphaned children of France and Belgium, has been depicted in "The Heart of Humanity," Allen Holubar's great picture of love and war which comes to the Auditorium theatre, Perrysburg on Saturday and Sunday with Dorothy Phillips in the leading role.

STOPPED BAD MEN

Four ring-leaders in the Ford strike at Rossford, one of whom was supposed to be the I. W. W. leader, were caught in Perrysburg by county authorities Saturday afternoon, following an auto chase up the River road.

The desperadoes stopped here to buy a gun to do "a little blowin' up" when the officers nabbed them and escorted them to Bowling Green for safe keeping.

KAZMAIER HOME ROBBED

While Mr. and Mrs. John Kazmaier, Sr., were up town Saturday evening, prowlers ransacked their house on W. Front street and escaped with about $20.00 in cash and a gold watch.

Cause of Headache.

By knowing the cause, a disease may often be avoided. This is particularly true of headache. The most common cause of headache is a disordered stomach or constipation, which may be corrected by taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. Many others have obtained permanent relief by taking these Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

PAYS FOR DAMAGE

Driving north at a high rate of speed on the Dixie Highway about two miles south of Perrysburg, Monday evening, Paul Gilbert, of Toronto, Can., with four other men in his machine collided with another car driven by Warren E. Braumbaugh, of Toledo, and overturned it in the big ditch that parallels the Dixie Highway.

Gilbert apparently didn't care to play the "Good Samaritan," but rather speeded up to get away from the wreckage. Nearby farmers who witnessed the accident telephoned to Perrysburg giving description of the Gilbert machine and it was stopped, the driver brought before Justice Cook and after he deposited a cash bond to cover repairs on the damaged machine Gilbert was permitted to go his way rejoicing without paying any fine.

Mrs. Braumbaugh was riding with her husband and received minor injuries when their car overturned.

LITTLE LUCILLE BURKHARDT

Lucille Margaret, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkhardt, passed away at an early hour Saturday morning, a victim of Bright's disease.

Deceased was born December 22, 1907, and was a scholar in the Perrysburg public schools at the time of her death.

Funeral services were conducted at St. Rose church at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, May 13, Rev. Fr. J. B. Kiebel officiating. Burial was made at St. Rose cemetery.

DIES OF ARSENIC POISONING

Conrad Schaffer, 60, died at his home in Monelova, Monday, May 12, 1919, from the effects of arsenic poisoning. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Swan Creek church and burial in Swan creek cemetery.
